3145 - HHS-DCFS - Children, Youth & Family Administration	This budget account provides funding for the Clark County Department of Family Services (CCDFS) to operate child welfare programs. These programs include Adoption Assistance, Foster Care Assistance, and Kinship Guardianship Assistance. Federal Title IV-E, Federal Title IV-B subpart 1, Child Support receipts, and General Fund appropriations pass through this budget account to CCDFS. The current block grant funding formula has been in place since it was passed by the 2011 Legislative session. The block grant has three major components; 1) a categorical grant for Adoption Assistance which is adjusted biennially for caseload growth; 2) a block grant for Foster Care maintenance payments and administrative expenditures; 3) an incentive payment tied to CCDFS' completion of specific performance targets set forth in the annual agency improvement plan. The amount of the Foster Care block grant also includes allotments for Specialized Foster Care and Respite care. The block grant is not restricted by traditional definitions and funding limitations, but is driven by the needs of children and families in their community. CCDFS can retain locally all the savings generated if the services provided by the county are less than the budgeted amount of the block grant. In addition, CCDFS must maintain a minimum Maintenance of Effort, which is tied to the amount of local funds spent for child welfare and child protective services at a level equal to or greater than the amount appropriated for fiscal year 2011. Passage of SB 377 of the 2021 Legislative Session allows for reported Adoption Savings General Fund amounts to be carried forward from the prior year.
